30th Fd Regt RCA 1821 British Artillery Echlin Sword Appraisal

In the fall of 2016, the Bytown Gunners Firepower Museum received a call from a local historical collector stating that he had recently purchased an old artillery sword at an auction in Pittsburgh, PA. Engraved on the sword was information about the original owner, who happened to be the Regimental (Major), Surgeon of the 2nd Ottawa Field Battery (that unit was/is located in the city of Bytown or Ottawa). After discussing the subject with the new owner, it was decided that the sword should be purchased and returned to the Bytown Gunners, 2nd Ottawa Field Battery regimental museum. The attached appraisal story provides additional information related to this event. As a footnote, it turns out that this officer was later appointed as the Canadian Surgeon General in the early 1990s. READ MORE

UVision unveils new Hero-400EC high-precision, extended-range loitering munition system

Defence Blog

UVision Air, a global pioneer of lethal aerial loitering systems of all sizes, recently unveiled the Hero-400EC, its new enlarged, extended-range, extremely precise loitering munition system. The system's unique cruciform aerodynamic design delivers high-accuracy and reduces collateral damage. Its electric motor enables it to loiter silently above a target, ready to instantly respond to pop-up threats. READ MORE

Elbit announces new version of Spear lightweight mortar system

Jane's 360

Elbit Systems announced a new version of its 120 mm Spear mortar system recently, just before it was displayed at the International Land Warfare and Logistics Conference in Latrun, Israel. Elbit sources said the Spear MK2 has already been purchased by three clients in the Asia-Pacific region and Europe. Like the original version, the Spear MK2 can be installed on various light vehicles such as a Humvee and comes with fire control, barrel-laying, and navigation systems so that it can be operated autonomously by a small crew. ### THE LAST POST

MACUMBER, Erma Venetta. Wife of Bill Macumber, formerly of 1 RCHA

We are saddened to announce the passing of Erma Venetta Macumber at the Hants Community Hospital. Erma was born in Harmony (near Truro), on Jan. 3, 1936 to the late Harold and Verna MacCabe. In her younger years, Erma worked at Windsor Textiles, and also Avon Valley Greenhouses in Falmouth. She loved nature. She loved watching birds, and squirrels and she especially loved planting pansies. She enjoyed going shopping and having her Saturday coffee with her daughter and granddaughter. She was a loving person who loved life. She had a good sense of humour and loved laughing with her family. She will greatly be missed. READ MORE
